

CM299 Documentary Representations of the Authentic Irish/American Experience

May 25th – June 9th, 2018

This 2-week course in beautiful Dingle, Ireland explores media representations of the Irish and Irish-American experiences. Students will watch documentaries and docudramas about Ireland and the Irish people, visit nearby locations where popular movies such as Star Wars: The Last Jedi were filmed, and document their experience in Dingle with social media and journal writing. This 3-credit course counts as CAM elective for both Communication Studies and Digital Media Production majors, and as a Liberal Arts course for all other majors. Optional group excursions to pubs, restaurants and local tourists sites will be organized. For more information, contact Prof. Brian Snee (Brian.Snee@mville.edu).

Apply by February 15th, 2018
